I'm thinking of starting an informal group for people new to the town and interested in making new friends and getting involved in a range of activities. Anyone interested?

Jessica Biel was a bridesmaid at a friend's wedding in Bronxville, New York over the weekend.

The actress posed for wedding pictures with the wedding party in front of a fountain following the vows. She wore a two piece ensemble with a cowl neck silk top and flower embroidered skirt. Each maid wore a different dress in a different color.

This is not the first time Biel has been in the wedding party. She was a bridesmaid at her friend Beverly Mitchell's wedding in Italy in 2009.
